

BREAKOUT SESSIONS

Tuesday, April 25 – 3:30-4:30 pm

Golden State Ballroom:

Impacting Your NeighborhoodDavid Docusen, Steve Pike, Preston Ulmer
This panel has impacted their neighborhoods in incredible ways! They will be sharing the practical and proven ministries they have implemented as well as the amazing opportunities in front of the church today!

Palm 1 & 2:

Answering the LGBTQ ChallengeJoe Dallas
Joe will discuss 4 areas of ministry challenge relative to LGBTQ issues: 1. Ministry to same-sex attracted people | 2. Ministry to transgender people | 3. Ministry to parents of LGBTQ people | 4. Equipping our youth to address the issues

Palm 7:

Reaching your Community through NonprofitsFrank Wooden, John Hughes, Barbara Ybarra
Learn how a nonprofit can help your ministry to effectively reach your community. You'll learn why and how to set up a nonprofit, grant writing basics, fundraising fundamentals, and Q and A.

Palm 3 & 4:

Reigniting your Church Post Pandemic Chris Sonksen
Coming out of the pandemic there are some common practices that churches are implementing across the nation to experience explosive growth. These are strategic moves that any size church can make. Come discover what you can do TODAY that will help launch your church into a new season of health and growth.

Wednesday, April 26 – 2:00-3:30 pm

Town & Country A:

Successful Successions and TransitionsJohn Martin
Creating the healthiest transitions of lead pastors and staff is not always easy, yet it is essential for the church to move forward into the future. We will discuss succession plans, transition of pastoral staff, and lead pastor transitions in General Council and Network Affiliated churches.

Palm 1, 2 & 3:

Losses, Grievs & Necessary EndingsGeorge Fessler
This breakout will focus on how we can finish well as we navigate the inevitable losses in our lives. We'll look beyond the normal loss associated with death to others, such as getting fired, life-threatening illness, difficult family issues, and more in all seasons of our lives--including ministry retirement.